

Hennepin County Medical Center
Minneapolis, MN
TRAUMA & CRITICAL CARE SERIES
(TRA-CCS)

TRA-CCS is a free monthly live and web-based nursing education series provided by Trauma & Critical Care Services at Hennepin County Medical Center, Minneapolis, Minnesota.

2016 Topic Schedule:

January 20:	I'm not a Psych Nurse: Tips
February 17:	EKG Issues in Diagnosis of Acute MI
March 16:	Eye Movements & Biomarkers: TBI 2016
April 20:	Organ Procurement Considerations
May 18:	Stroke Update 2016
June 15:	Child Abuse
July 20:	Summer Injuries or Summer Bumpers
August 17:	Ventilators, ECMO, & Maximizing Oxygenation
September 21:	Chest & Abdominal Trauma
October 19:	Beta Blocker Overdoses & Toxidromes
November 16:	Hot Topics & Research 2016
December 21:	Winter Emergencies

Purpose: Improve patient outcomes by disseminating the latest trends in trauma, emergency and critical care to nurses and health care providers across the state and region.

Date/Time: Live 3rd Wednesday of the Month from 0730-0830 in RL.110 at Hennepin County Medical Center
Web cast live or via link for 4 weeks after the presentation to receive contact hours. Links will be kept open for 6 months for viewing.

Registration: Register to have the series by e-mail on a monthly or yearly basis sent to your work or home e-mail address. Link will be sent week of presentation to the e-mail address provided.
Send new registration information to Karie.pearce@hcmcd.org or ★ fax: 612-904-4245 for this option.

Contact Hours: This activity was designed to meet the requirements for 1.0 (60 Minutes) or 1.2 contact hours (50 Minutes) of continuing nursing education. Certificates will be sent upon completion of a session evaluation and post test. Webcast can be viewed after the live cast with contact hours provided by e-mail after completion of the evaluation and post test.