ELIGIBILITY

By state law, vital records are not open for public inspection. Vital records may be issued in the form of a certified or an informational copy. Only certain individuals are eligible to obtain a certified copy of a vital record (see below to determine if you qualify). Not qualified to receive a certified copy of a vital record? Any person who submits an application and the applicable fee can obtain an informational copy of a vital record.

Certified Copies

The record will be computer generated, issued on security paper with a raised seal and have the signature of the issuing agent. Individuals eligible for a certified copy are the following:

Current Spouse, Child
Parent, Guardian - If guardian, please submit documentation of your legal guardianship.
Next of Kin - Grandparents, grandchildren over 18 and siblings only
Attorneys, Physicians or Funeral Directors acting on behalf of the family

Designated Agent - Someone given the authority by another individual to obtain a vital record on his or her behalf must complete Section 4.

Personal or Property Right - A right to the record not included in the categories above. Please submit documentation of the right with your application.

Informational Copies

These copies will be issued on plain paper and contain the statement "For Informational Purposes Only. Not for Legal Proof of Identification." An informational copy will not contain a raised seal or the signature of the issuing agent.

Photostatic Copies (Certified or Informational)

This record is a photo copy of the original. These records may be requested if the computer generated copy does not contain the information needed. Generally, these copies are intended for genealogy purposes. They can be issued certified for legal purposes or informational.
