

Colorectal Cancer Screening, 2016

Respondents aged 50 to 75 that met colorectal cancer screening recommendations.

The national median for meeting colorectal cancer screening recommendations is 67.7 percent. South Dakota has 65.8 percent of respondents who report they met colorectal cancer screening recommendations.

New Mexico has the lowest with 58.8 percent, while Massachusetts has the highest with 76.3 percent of respondents who report they met colorectal cancer screening recommendations.

Nationally, Respondents Who Have Met Colorectal Cancer Screening Recommendations, 2016

Source: The Behavioral Risk Factor Surveillance System, South Dakota Department of Health, 2016