ARSD 20:48:03:12 – Lapse and reinstatement License

SDCL 36-9-47 - Reinstatement of lapsed license or certificate -- Fee

To reinstate your CNM, CNP, CRNA, or CNS license you must be actively licensed as an RN.

- If South Dakota is your primary state of residence, or if you reside in a non-compact state, and your SD RN license is active you have met this requirement.
- If your South Dakota RN license has lapsed, you must Reinstate your South Dakota RN license.
- If you reside in a Compact State, and your RN license in that state is active, send a copy of that active RN license to be verified by the South Dakota Board of Nursing.

To REINSTATE your advanced practice nursing license, submit the following to the South Dakota Board of Nursing office at the address listed above:

- Completed Application for Reinstatement of Advanced Practice Nurse Lapsed License indicating license(s) to be reinstated.
- Completed Employment Verification Form
- Fee payment should be in the form of a money order or a personal check payable to South Dakota Board of Nursing. Fees are non-refundable and must accompany form. A $20 fee will be charged for any insufficient check written.

Fees required to reinstate both South Dakota RN license and APN license:

$90 RN renewal fee + $50 RN reinstatement fee + $70 APN renewal fee + $50 APN reinstatement fee=
$260

Fees required to reinstate only South Dakota APN license: (South Dakota RN license is current):

$70 APN renewal fee + $50 APN reinstatement fee= $120

Fee required to renew South Dakota APN license only (hold valid compact RN license with multi-state privileges):

Declaration of Primary State of Residence

I declare _____ to be my primary state of residence. Primary state of residence is where you hold a driver's license, pay taxes and/or vote. This state is referred to as my "home state" under the Nurse Licensure Compact and means that it is my "declared fixed permanent and principal home for legal purposes".

The following can be used to document residency pursuant to the Compact laws and rules.

1. Driver's license with a home address.
2. Voter registration card displaying a home address.
3. Federal income tax return declaring the primary state of residence.
4. Military Form No. 2058 – state of legal residence certificate.
5. W2 from US Government or any bureau, division or agency thereof indicating the declared state of residence.

For Office Use Only:

Military / Federal Employees

A federal government/military nurse practicing exclusively in federal or military systems, need only have one license from any state or territory per U.S. federal government/military policy. A federal or military nurse who also practices in a civilian health systems is bound by the Compact law and rules.

A federal/military nurse who has proof of residency in a Compact party state may be issued a Compact license with a multi-state practice privilege. A federal/military nurse who does not have proof of residency in a Compact party state may be issued a single-state license regardless of where the nurse is residing. A military/federal nurse may not hold a multi-state license from more than one Compact state at a time.

Are you employed by the military or practicing in a Federal institution?

- Yes
- No

Collaborative Agreement Information (Applicable to CNM and CNP ONLY)

To perform the overlapping scope of advanced practice nursing and medical functions with a physician licensed in South Dakota as defined in SDCL 36-9A-12 and SDCL 36-9A-13, CNMs and CNPs must have on file a current Joint Board of Nursing and Medical and Osteopathic Examiners approved collaborative agreement (SDCL 36-9A-15 and SDCL 36-9A-17).

Collaborative Agreement renewal is not required with licensure renewal, as long as the terms defined in the agreement describe current practice. The CNP/CNM is accountable to maintain current status of all collaborative agreements on file with the Boards. Once a collaborative agreement has been reviewed and approved by the Boards, it remains in effect until a new collaborative agreement has been submitted and approved. To obtain a collaborative agreement, go to the Board of Nursing website at www.nursing.sd.gov, select Site Index then Collaborative Agreement.

- I do not have a collaborative agreement on file with the Boards. I do not perform the overlapping scope of advanced practice nursing and medical functions as defined in 36-9A-12 / 36-9A-13.
- I have included a new or revised collaborative agreement with this application to be approved by the Boards.
- I have an approved collaborative agreement(s) on file with the Boards. My primary physician(s) are listed below:

Primary Physician(s): _____

Certification Information

Primary source verification of current certification from a Board-approved certification organization specific to your area of practice is required to be on file with the Board office prior to your APN license being renewed. If you are unsure if you have current certification on file, contact the Board office. Photocopies of certification documents are not accepted.

- Primary source verification showing evidence of my current certification is already on file with the BON office. If so, you do not need to resubmit.
- I am a CRNA, AANA# _____. Primary source verification of your re-certification status will be monitored on NBCRNA's verification website.
- I do not have primary source verification of my certification on file with the BON, I have sent the Certification Verification Form to my certifying organization to be sent to the SD BON verifying my on-going currency of certification.
 - CNPs or CNSs certified with NCC or ANCC must submit on-line requests to NCC and ANCC for primary source verification to be sent to the BON.
- I am exempt from certification requirement. I was originally licensed as a CNP/CNM in South Dakota before June 26, 1996 or as a CNS before July 1, 1996 and have never submitted certification evidence to the Board for licensure purposes.
