CHAPTER 36-37
SPEECH-LANGUAGE PATHOLOGISTS

36-37-1. Definitions.
Terms used in this chapter mean:

(1) "Board," the Board of Examiners for Speech-Language Pathology;
(2) "Department," the Department of Health;
(3) "Endoscopy," an imaging procedure included within the scope of practice for speech-language pathologists in which a speech-language pathologist uses a flexible/nasal flexible nasal endoscopy, rigid/oral rigid oral endoscopy, or stroboscopy for the purpose of evaluating and treating disorders of speech, voice, resonance, and swallowing function;
(4) "Mentorship," the direct on-site supervision and monitoring of a speech-language pathologist with a provisional license by a licensed speech-language pathologist;
(5) "Provisional license," the license issued to an applicant who is practicing speech-language pathology while completing the supervised postgraduate professional experience following completion of master's degree in speech-language pathology;
(6) "Speech-language pathologist," any person who engages in the practice of speech-language pathology and who meets the qualifications set forth in this chapter;
(7) "Speech-language pathology assistant," any person who assists in the practice of speech-language pathology and who meets the qualifications set forth in this chapter; and
(8) "Supervision," the direct, on-site monitoring of a speech-language pathology assistant or a speech-language pathologist with a provisional license by a licensed speech-language pathologist; and
(9) "Telepractice," "tele speech," "tele speech-language pathology," or "telehealth," whether used separately or together. Telepractice service means the application of telecommunication technology to deliver speech-language pathology at a distance for assessment, intervention, or consultation.

36-37-2. Practice of speech-language pathology defined.
For the purposes of this chapter, the practice of speech-language pathology is the application of principles, methods, and procedures related to the development, disorders, and effectiveness of human communication and related functions, including providing prevention, screening, consultation, assessment/evaluation, diagnosis, treatment/intervention, management, counseling, collaboration, and referral services for disorders of speech, language, feeding, and swallowing, and for cognitive aspects of communication. The practice of speech-language pathology also includes establishing:

36-37-3. License to practice speech-language pathology required – Violation as misdemeanor.

Revised: June 13, 2022
No person may practice speech-language pathology or represent himself or herself as a speech-language pathologist or speech-language pathology assistant in this state, unless such person is licensed in accordance with this chapter. A person represents oneself to be a speech-language pathologist or speech-language pathology assistant if the person holds himself or herself out to the public by any means, or by any service or function performed, directly or indirectly, or by using the terms, speech pathologist, speech therapist, speech teacher, speech correctionist, speech clinician, language therapist, language pathologist, language specialist, voice therapist, voice pathologist, logopedist, communicologist, aphasiologist, phoniatrist, speech-language pathologist assistant, or any variation, synonym, coinage, or other word that expresses, employs, or implies these terms, names, or functions. A violation of this section is a Class 2 misdemeanor.

Any person who holds possessed any speech-language pathologist certificate from the South Dakota Department of Education as of July 1, 2012, and does not otherwise meet the qualifications set forth in this chapter may apply for and shall be granted a limited license to practice as a speech-language pathologist as long as:

(1) The application is initial application was made no later than July 1, 2014; and
(2) The applicant complies with the provisions of subdivisions 36-37-14(1), (2), and (7).

The limits of the license shall be determined by the board in rules promulgated pursuant to chapter 1-26.

36-37-5. Activities not restricted by chapter.

Nothing in this chapter may be construed as preventing or restricting:

(1) Any person licensed, certified, registered, or otherwise credentialed by this state in professions other than speech-language pathology from practicing that profession;
(2) Any person certified as a teacher of the deaf;
(3) The activities and services of any person pursuing a course of study leading to a degree in speech-language pathology or as a speech-language pathology assistant at a college or university if:
   (a) The activities and services constitute a part of a planned course of study at that institution;
   (b) The person is designated by a title such as intern, trainee, student, or by other such title clearly indicating the status appropriate to their level of education; and
   (c) The person works under the supervision of a person licensed by this state to practice speech-language pathology;
(4) The activities of any person who is not licensed in this state from engaging in the practice of speech-language pathology for the purpose of providing training or continuous education as long as they hold an active license in another state, agree to abide by the standards of professional conduct and do not engage in such activities exceeding five days in any calendar year.

Any person who is licensed as a speech-language pathologist in South Dakota may perform assessment, treatment, and procedures related to speech, voice, resonance, and swallowing function using nonmedical endoscopy as long as the person has received training, and is competent to perform these procedures. A licensed speech-language pathologist shall have protocols in place for emergency medical backup when performing procedures using an endoscope.

Revised: June 13, 2022

There is hereby created a The Governor shall appoint a five-member Board of Examiners for Speech-Language Pathology under the supervision of the Department of Health. The board shall consist of five members appointed by the Governor who are residents of this state. Four of the members shall be speech-language pathologists who are currently practicing speech-language pathology, who have five years experience practicing speech-language pathology, and who hold a license to practice speech-language pathology in this state, except for the first speech-language pathologists appointed who need only meet the eligibility requirements for licensure. At least one of the members who is a speech-language pathologist shall be employed in a school setting and one of the members who is a speech-language pathologist shall be employed in a health care setting. One of the members shall be a representative of the public who is not associated with or financially interested in the practice or business of speech-language pathology. No member of the board may concurrently serve in an elected, appointed, or employed position in any state professional association or governmental regulatory agency which presents a conflict of interest.

Each appointment to the board shall be for a period of three years except for the initial appointments which shall be for staggered terms. Each member shall serve until the expiration of the term for which the member has been appointed or until the member’s successor is appointed and qualified to serve on the board. If a vacancy occurs other than by expiration of a term, the Governor shall appoint a qualified person to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term. No member may serve more than three consecutive three-year terms.

The Governor may remove any member of the board for unprofessional conduct, incompetence, or neglect of duty.

The board shall annually elect from its members a president and vice president.

36-37-10. Meetings of board – Quorum.

The board shall meet during the first quarter of each calendar year to select a chair and vice chair and to conduct other business. At least one additional meeting shall be held before the end of each calendar year. Additional meetings may be convened at the call of the chair or at the request of two or more board members held at least two meeting annually at times and places to be set by the board. The board may hold other meetings at times and places set by the president or a majority of the board.

Four members A majority of the board constitutes a quorum to do business if the majority of the members present are speech-language pathologists. A majority vote of those present constitutes a decision of the entire board.

Members of the board shall receive a per diem established pursuant to § 4-7-10.4 and expenses at the same rate as other state employees while actually engaged in official duties.

The board has the following powers and duties:
(1) Administer, coordinate, and enforce the provisions of this chapter, evaluate the qualifications of applicants, supervise the examination of applicants, and issue and renew licenses;

(2) Issue subpoenas, examine witnesses, administer oaths, conduct hearings, and, at its discretion, investigate allegations of violations of this chapter and impose penalties for any violations;

(3) Promulgate rules pursuant to chapter 1-26 to delineate qualifications for licensure, specify requirements for the renewal of licensure, regulate the delivery of services via telepractice, establish standards of professional conduct, specify procedures for suspension and revocation of licensure, establish a schedule of disciplinary actions for violations of professional conduct, permit inactive licensurees, establish procedures for collection and management of fees and payments, establish application, biennial licensure, biennial renewal, and late fees not to exceed one hundred fifty dollars each, delineate activities that may or may not be delegated to an assistant, and specify requirements for supervision of speech-language pathology assistants based on national guidelines;

(4) Have available the names and addresses of persons currently licensed pursuant to the provisions of this chapter;

(5) Employ personnel in accordance with its needs and budget;

(6) Request legal advice and assistance, as needed, from the Office of the Attorney General;

(7) Enter into such contracts as necessary to carry out its responsibilities under this chapter;

(8) Hire legal counsel;

(9) Establish a budget;

(10) Submit reports of its operations and finances as required by § 4-7-7.2;

(11) Adopt an official seal by which it shall authenticate its proceedings, copies, records, acts of the board, and licenses;

(12) Develop procedures for:
(a) Monitoring a license holder’s compliance with the requirements of this chapter;
(b) Monitoring a license holder who is ordered by the board to perform certain acts;
(c) Identifying a license holder who presents a risk to the public; and
(d) Initiating appropriate actions regarding a license holder who presents a risk to the public;

(13) Develop a system for monitoring complaints filed with the board, procedures for providing assistance to a person who wishes to file a complaint, and a schedule for disposing of complaints in a timely manner;

(14) Communicate disciplinary actions to relevant state and federal authorities including the National Practitioners Database and the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association Board of Ethics and to other state speech-language pathology licensing authorities; and

(15) Perform any other duties directly related to the administration of the provisions of this chapter.

No member of the board is liable for civil action for any act performed in good faith in the performance of the member’s duties as prescribed by law.

All moneys coming into the custody of the board, including any fees and any other payments, shall be paid by the board to the state treasurer on or before the tenth day of each month and shall consist of all moneys received by the board during the preceding calendar month. The state treasurer shall credit the moneys to the Board of Examiners for Speech-Language Pathology account, which account is hereby created. The moneys in the account are hereby continuously appropriated to the board for the purpose of paying the expense of administering and enforcing the provisions of this chapter. The total expenses incurred by the board may not exceed the total moneys collected.

(8) Falsely representing the use or availability of services or advise of a physician;

(9) Misrepresenting the applicant, licensee, or holder by using the term, doctor, or any similar word, abbreviation, or symbol if the use is not accurate or if the degree was not obtained from a regionally accredited institution;

(10) Committing any act of dishonesty, immorality, or unprofessional conduct while engaging in the practice of speech-language pathology;

(11) Engaging in illegal, incompetent, or negligent practice;

(12) Providing professional services while:
   (a) Mentally incompetent;
   (b) Under the influence of alcohol;
   (c) Using any narcotic or controlled dangerous substance or other drug that is in excess of therapeutic amounts or without valid medical indication Practicing with a physical or mental disability or incompetence which renders practice potentially harmful or dangerous;

(10) Using alcohol or any other substance to such extent to render unfit to practice with reasonable skill and safety;

(13) Providing services or promoting the sale of devices, appliances, or products to a person who cannot reasonably be expected to benefit from such services, devices, appliances, or products;

(14) Violating any provision of this chapter, or any lawful order given, or rule adopted, by the board;

(15) Being convicted or pleading guilty or nolo contendere to a felony or to a crime involving moral turpitude as defined by SDCL 22-1-2(25), whether or not any appeal or other proceeding is pending to have the conviction or plea set aside;

(16) Being disciplined by a licensing or disciplinary authority of any state or country, or any nationally recognized professional organization, or convicted or disciplined by a court of any state or country for an act that would be grounds for disciplinary action under this section;

(17) Exploiting a patient for financial gain or sexual favors;

(18) Failing to report suspected cases of child abuse or vulnerable adult abuse;

(19) Diagnosing or treating a person for speech disorders by mail or telephone unless the person has been previously examined by the licensee and the diagnosis or treatment is related to such examination;

(20) Violating federal, state, or local laws relating to the profession;

(18) Not reporting to the board discipline by another state or territory under U.S. jurisdiction;

(19) Not reporting to the board a conviction of any felony criminal offense or any conviction of a criminal offense arising out of the practice under 36-37.

The board shall adopt, by rules promulgated pursuant to chapter 1-26, a schedule of sanctions to be imposed as the result of formal or informal disciplinary activities conducted by the board.

The board may take disciplinary action or suspend, revoke, or reissue a license or certification only after a hearing conducted by a hearing examiner appointed by the board or by a majority of the members of the board.

Any disciplinary proceeding or proceeding relative to the revocation or suspension of a license or certification shall otherwise conform to the procedure set forth in chapter 1-26 and chapter 36-1C.

Any decision of the board to discipline, suspend, revoke, or reissue a license or certification requires a majority vote of the board membership.

Revised: June 13, 2022
Any party feeling aggrieved by any acts, rulings, or decisions of the board acting pursuant to § 36-37-21, 36-37-22, or 36-37-23, has the right to appeal under the provisions of chapter 1-26 and chapter 36-1C.

36-37-25. Injunction for violation.

Any person violating the provisions of this chapter may be enjoined from further violations at the suit of the state's attorney of the county where the violations occurred or suit may be brought by any citizen of this state. An action for injunction is an alternate to criminal proceedings, and the commencement of one proceeding by the board constitutes an election.

36-37-26. Notice to board of change of name or address.

Each licensee, upon changing a name, place of employment, or place of business shall, within ninety days thereafter, furnish the board with updated information. A post office box number may not be the address of a place of business.

36-37-26. Criminal background investigation of applicants and licensees subject to disciplinary investigation – Cooperation required – Fees.

Each applicant for licensure as a speech-language pathologist or speech-language pathologist assistant in this state shall submit to a state and federal criminal background investigation by means of fingerprint checks by the Division of Criminal Investigation and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Upon application, the board shall submit completed fingerprint cards to the Division of Criminal Investigation. Upon completion of the criminal background check, the Division of Criminal Investigation shall forward to the board all information obtained as a result of the criminal background check. This information shall be obtained prior to permanent licensure of the applicant. The board may require a state and federal criminal background check for any licensee who is the subject of a disciplinary investigation by the board. Failure to submit or cooperate with the criminal background investigation is grounds for denial of an application or may result in revocation of a license. The applicant shall pay for any fees charged for the cost of fingerprinting or the criminal background investigation.

In addition to the provisions of this Chapter, the provisions of SDCL 36-39-1 and 36-39-2, inclusive, apply.
