SOUTH DAKOTA BOARD OF PODIATRY EXAMINERS
CONTINUING EDUCATION REPORT FORM
20:55:01:08 Continuing education requirements:

Each licensee shall, prior to July 1, 2001, and every two years thereafter, provide written verification to the Board of Podiatry Examiners of the completion of 30 hours of continuing medical education. The program hours must be approved and certified by the Council of Podiatric Medical Education of the American Podiatric Medical Association. The necessary verification shall accompany each application for licensure renewal. If satisfactory verification is not received, the board shall deny the renewal application or take action to revoke or suspend the license of an individual not in compliance.

Up to 30 additional hours of satisfactory continuing medical education can be carried over for two years only.

It is your responsibility to retain in your records copies of any certificates you will be using for the applicable licensing period. You are responsible to provide the Board office verification of completion of the 30 hours of CEU's required by ARSD 20:55:01:08. The board office will not track the continuing education hours. If you have questions, please feel free to contact the Board office.
