Application for Honorarium Funding from the South Dakota Board of Funeral Service

Background

It is the policy of the Board to allocate resources, when available, to fund educational activities that further the mission of the board.

Procedure

Application Deadline:	February 15, 2027, for FY28 funding
Submit Applications to:	SD Board of Funeral Service 810 N. Main St. #298 Spearfish, SD 57783 Or by email to: office@sdlicensing.com
Fund Amount:	The Board will fund up to $2,500 during the Fiscal Year

Criteria for Consideration

The educational activity must further the mission of the board and be related to the regulation of funeral service.

The request may be for an amount equal or less than the maximum fund amount, but the Board reserves the right to approve the final amount of funding granted.

If an application is approved, the requesting organization must be prepared to complete the state contract process.

Application Process

Please submit a written request outlining the details of your request.

This must include:

1. Organization name, contact person and contact information
2. Total funding amount for event/activity needed
3. Funding amount requested from SD Board of Funeral Service
4. Dates of activities where funds will be used
5. Details of how funds will be used including how it supports the mission of the board or is related to the regulation of funeral service. Details must include exactly what activity the funds are supporting. For example, if it is to fund a speaker, you must provide the name and details of the speaker.
