

Healthy Relationships Program Evaluation Guidance

The South Dakota (SD) Healthy Relationships Programs of the SD Department of Health (DOH) provides programs and services throughout the state including family planning, education on abstinence and contraceptive use, healthy relationships, and sexual violence prevention. Services and programs are implemented with funding provided by the following agencies and funding opportunities:

U.S. Department of Health and Human Services; Office of Administration for Children and Families; Family & Youth Services Bureau
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• State Personal Responsibility Education Program (PREP)</li></ul>
U.S. Department of Health and Human Services; Office of Population Affairs
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Title X Family Planning Program (Title X)</li></ul>
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention; Violence Prevention
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Rape Prevention Education Program (RPE)</li></ul>

To inform on the reporting needs of the federal funding agencies listed above, partner involvement in the evaluation process is crucial for accurate data collection. This document outlines the different evaluation components for the Healthy Relationships programs, along with responsible parties and due dates for evaluation deliverables.

For questions related to evaluation, please contact Emmeline Weber, Evaluation Specialist, at emmeline.weber@sdstate.edu.

Thank you for your time to assist in the evaluation of these programs! Your efforts in collecting and providing data to the SD DOH Healthy Relationships team will help us continue to provide positive and impactful data back to funding agencies, showcasing the wonderful work accomplished in South Dakota!
