Application to Request Equivalency of Education for 75-Hour Nurse Aide Training

Nursing students and inactive or lapsed RNs and LPNs may request to meet the 75-hour Nurse Aide training requirement by equivalency of education pursuant to ARSD 44:74:02:16. South Dakota Board of Nursing (SDBON) grants approval for students actively or previously enrolled in Board-approved nursing education programs that have successfully completed (grade 'C' or better) courses that include nursing theory and clinical instruction which meet the 75-hour Nurse Aide training content required in ARSD 44:74:02:15.

SDBON will send written notice as to whether the applicant: (1) is granted approval to waive the Nurse Aide training program and is eligible to schedule the written and manual competency evaluations for nurse aides through the South Dakota Healthcare Association; or (2) is denied approval to waive the Nurse Aide training program and why.
