

What is SUDORS?

SUDORS is a surveillance system that provides comprehensive data on unintentional and undetermined intent drug overdose deaths that occur in a state, regardless of residency. Information is collected from death certificates, coroner reports, and toxicology reports.

For more information and data, visit:

<https://doh.sd.gov/health-data-reports/substance-use-data-reports/state-unintentional-drug-overdose-reporting-system-sudors/>

Overdose Prevention

Substance use disorder is a treatable disease. For individuals, or loved ones, struggling with addiction, visit the Let's Be Clear website. <https://letsbeclarasd.com/>

Overdose Deaths by Year

From 2020 to 2024, there were 357 unintentional and undetermined overdose deaths

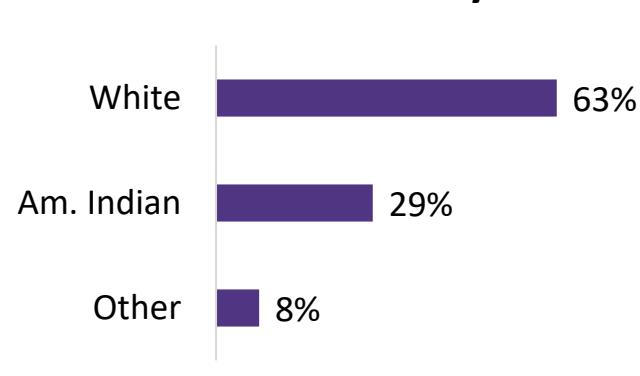

62% of overdose deaths had at least one opportunity for intervention

- 43% had a potential bystander present
- 21% of decedents had a known mental health diagnosis
- 9% had received treatment for substance use disorder
- 9% of decedents had a prior overdose reported
- 8% of fatal drug use was witnessed

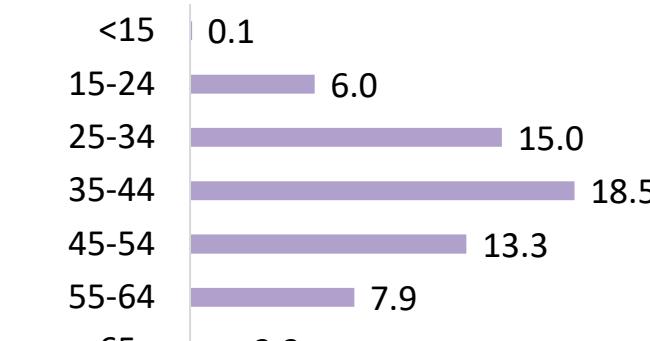

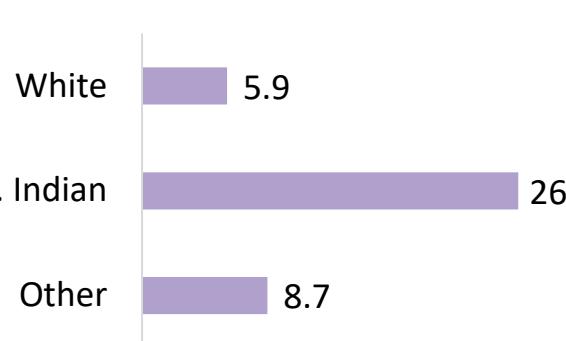

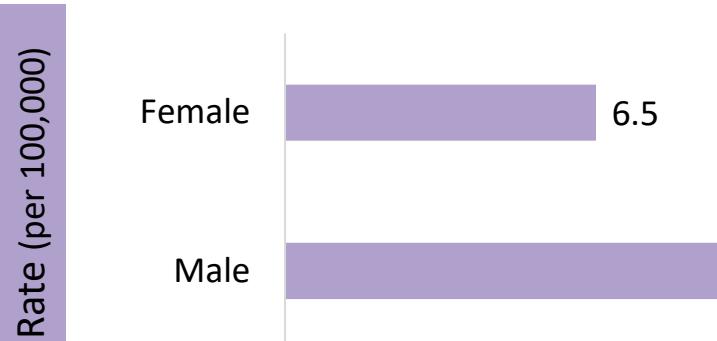

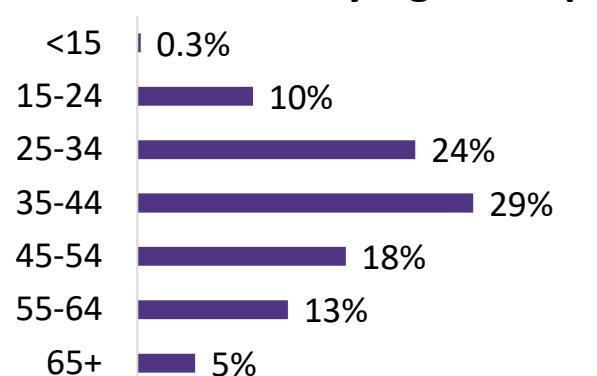

Overdose Deaths by Sex

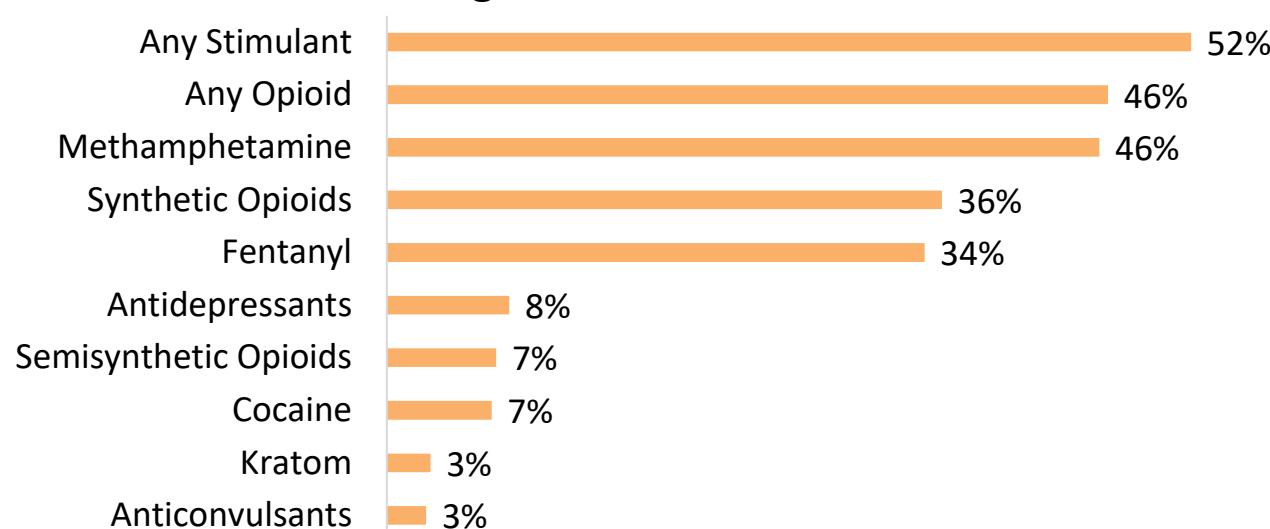

Overdose Deaths by Race

Overdose Deaths by Age Group

Drugs Listed as Cause of Death

- 52% of overdose deaths involved at least one stimulant
 - 46% were methamphetamine-related
 - 7% were cocaine-related
- 46% of overdose deaths involved at least one opioid
 - 34% were fentanyl-related

Please note that an overdose may involve multiple substances.

This publication was supported by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) as part of financial assistance awards totaling $1,865,943 with 100 percent funded by CDC/HHS. The contents are those of the author and do not necessarily represent the official views of, nor an endorsement, by CDC/HHS, or the U.S. Government.