

Current Smokers, 2016

Respondents who report having smoked at least 100 cigarettes in their lifetime and now smoke every day or smoke some days.

The national median for current cigarette smoking is 17.1 percent. South Dakota has 18.1 percent of respondents who report current cigarette smoking.

Utah has the lowest with 8.8 percent, while West Virginia has the highest with 24.8 percent of respondents who report current cigarette smoking.

Nationally, Respondents Who Currently Smoke Cigarettes, 2016

Source: The Behavioral Risk Factor Surveillance System, South Dakota Department of Health, 2016

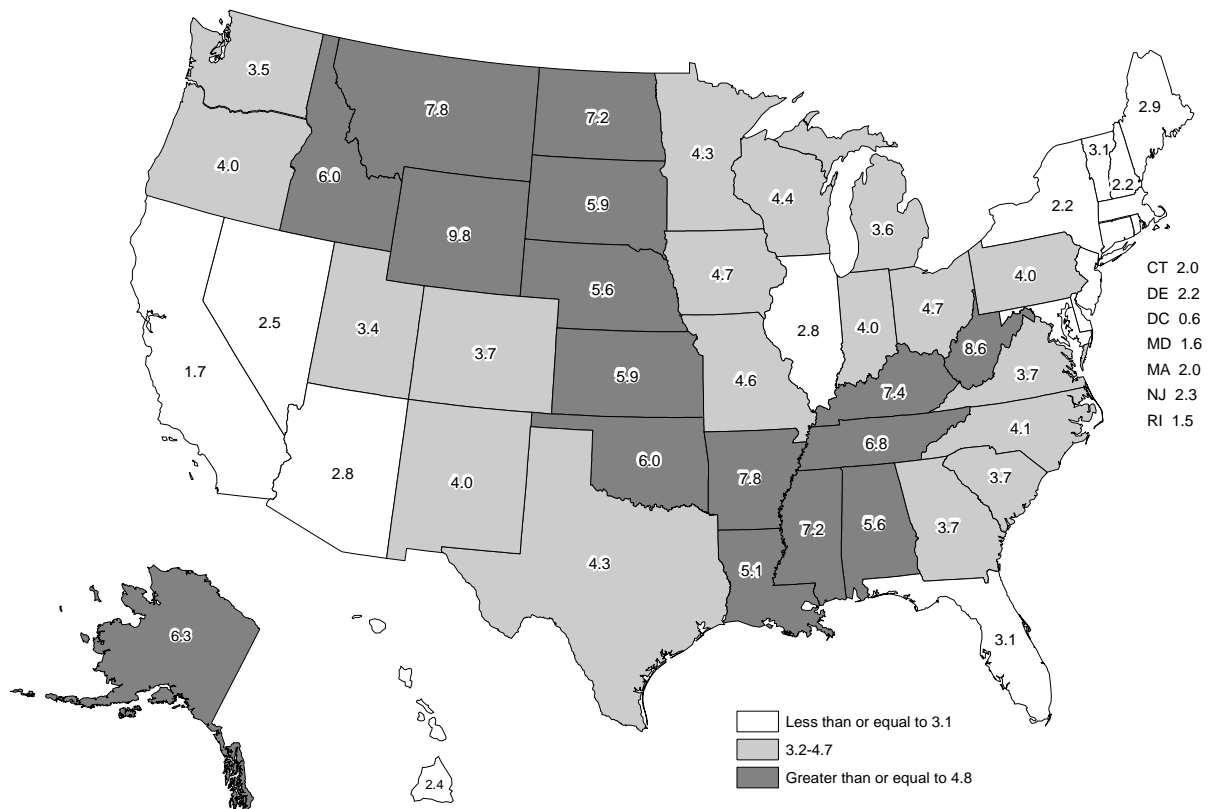

Smokeless Tobacco, 2016

Respondents who report that they use chewing tobacco or snuff every day or some days.

The national median for using smokeless tobacco is 3.9 percent. South Dakota has 5.9 percent of respondents who report using smokeless tobacco.

Washington D.C. has the lowest with 0.6 percent, while Wyoming has the highest with 9.8 percent of respondents who report using smokeless tobacco.

Nationally, Respondents Who Use Smokeless Tobacco, 2016

Source: The Behavioral Risk Factor Surveillance System, South Dakota Department of Health, 2016